AAX VST3 RTAS. Release date: March 22, 2020.Slideshow ( 2 images ) PARIS (Reuters) - French carmakers BMW, Renault and Peugeot will offer battery-electric sport utility vehicles, SUVs, to European customers by the end of 2021, a French industry group said on Friday. The Confederation of Autos and SMEs (CAMS) said the three automakers will also fit more electric vehicles with refuelling and charging points to satisfy expectations for longer range and faster charging. BMW said last year it would offer an all-electric version of its X2 crossover by 2021. Renault and Peugeot each plan an electric version of their respective SUV ranges. All three companies plan to manufacture the vehicles in Europe./* * Copyright (c) 1999, 2013, Oracle and/or its affiliates.
